

MAX, founded in 1983, based in Bangladesh, grew up over the years, as a Group of Companies and diversified its business, in Railway Construction including manufacturing of Track Fittings, Infrastructure Development, Power Generation and developing infrastructure in Power Sector and manufacturing and trading of consumer products, to date. Max is engaged in improving performance, in playing the role of strong local partner, in driving industrialization; in creating markets, opportunities and sustainable growth and value for all stakeholders. We ensure quality, safety and timeliness. Today MAX Group is known in the local market the most reputed, trusted and fast growing group in Bangladesh. Over the years Max have established itself as Largest Railroad construction company, power plant operator owning 78.5 MW gas plant and 163 MW Combined cycle plant. MAX Group is the first local company in Bangladesh to complete EPC of Combined cycle plant. Other diversified fields that Max have prominent presence in manufacturing of Consumer products like Railway track fittings, Lubricants, Automobile Leaf springs, concrete sleepers, steel utensils and textiles.

